DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings filed on 1/5/04 are informal, since the letters, numbers and lines are not uniform in nature throughout the Figures.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1 and 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by McCausland.

In regard to claim 1, the McCausland reference discloses a "container" 10 for storing food, said container comprising a "housing" 12, an "opening" 13, a "door" 15 "pivotally connected" via hinge 34 being made of "steel" (see col. 2, lines 58-60), a "magnet" 32, an "electrically powered vacuum" 16 having a "control button" 28 and a plurality of "air valves" (see column 3, lines 21-23), as claimed.

In regard to claim 3, the "intake valve" would inherently be placed with an interior wall and the "outlet valve" would inherently be placed with an exterior sidewall.

In regard to claim 4, see "shelf" 26.

In regard to claim 5, see "handle" 20 in Figure 2.

In regard to claim 6, "rubber support members" (not shown) are inherent to the system for leveling the cabinet.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 7-15 are allowed.

Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The Breen reference pertains to another vacuum storage system, similar to Applicant's device.
